

If you teach

Motivation --- that inspires creativity and engagement
Content --- that's real and relevant, not superficial
Qualities --- that endure beyond the classroom
Passion --- that energises and sustains life
Differentiation --- through diversity
Harmony --- that's grounded in equity
Cultural relevance --- without lessening its significance

Then we will learn

One day we'll sing a different tune
That's truly reflective of our new level
Struggling, at risk, reluctant would vanish
From your list of remedial props

Then we will learn

Because you teach.
